Advanced Packaging Conference (APC) & Fab Management Forum (FMF)

Connect at two high-impact, paid-access conferences:

- The Fab Management Forum (FMF) is a strategic platform uniting European semiconductor leaders to build resilient supply chain collaborations, navigate geopolitical complexities, and define sustainable, competitive fab strategies for the region.
- The Advanced Packaging Conference (APC), themed Power and Interconnects Innovations Enabling AI System Performance, APC 2026 will explore how innovations such as 2.5D/3D integration, chiplet architectures, co-packaged optics, advanced materials, AI-driven design flows, and next-generation thermal and power management are enabling the future of AI, high-performance computing (HPC), automotive, and edge applications

APC-FMF-EXPO – Terms & Conditions

Exhibition Booth Cancellation Terms

By submitting the APC-FMF-EXPO application, the exhibitor makes a binding request to participate under the stated terms. The contract is concluded when SEMI Europe GmbH assigns a booth and communicates the placement and costs. Acceptance by the exhibitor occurs either by explicit confirmation or by failure to object in writing within five (5) business days of receipt of the placement proposal.

Cancellation of participation requires the written consent of SEMI Europe GmbH.

In case of cancellation, the exhibitor agrees to liquidated damages of up to 100% of the agreed exhibition fee. If the booth is successfully reassigned, a 25% handling fee of the agreed exhibition fee will apply. If the booth cannot be reassigned, 100% of the agreed exhibition fee remains payable. SEMI Europe GmbH will make reasonable efforts to reassign the space. Final charges may be confirmed after the event.

Payment Terms

The total booth fee plus 19% German VAT, payable within 30 days of invoice receipt.

Beneficiary: SEMI Europe GmbH | IBAN: DE02100700240040390700 | BIC: DEUTDE33HAN | DB Privat und Firmenkundenbank AG, Berlin, Germany
